

HALLWORTHY STOCKYARD CHRISTMAS EXTRAVAGANZA Friday 6th December

Carols were held in the store ring at Hallworthy 6th December, 60-70 people attended on the eve of storm Darragh, the service was conducted by the market chaplain Andy Jerard. Stuart Cornelius welcomed the congregation, then thanked Andy, Sleeps LTD (for the lighting), Viv Paul, Edwenna Broad (for a very funny sketch) and Clare Cornelius (for her musical accomplishment).

A super evening of carols and readings by Mary Andrew, Robert Andrew (Moses) and Stuart Cornelius. There was an informal collection for the chaplaincy raising £130. After everyone was welcomed to the Wilsey Down where teas, coffees, minced pies and sausage rolls were provided by Rick Cobbledick of the Wilsey Down and Kivells.

Prior to the service there was a fun Christmas craft fair held at the Wilsey in the afternoon. After super the congregation joined the patrons of the Wilsey and a sale of craft items were sold by Stuart Cornelius which raised £440 for Children's Hospice Southwest.
