477 Tractors, Machinery & Effects – Auctioneer: David Kivell & Charlie Kivell

A staggering 477 lots of larger machinery in the yard this month, 70% of lots received an online bid with 33% selling via Marteye online!

An impressive entry of tractors entered this month with a lineup of 14. Top call of the day was a tidy example of a 1997 John Deere 6400 with loader and the clock reading 2,300 hours for £19,000. Followed by a 1999 Case MX135 in working order with 7,943 hours on the clock reaching £16,200. A 1999 JCB 526S farm special with the clock showing 3,998 hours topped at £13,500. £11,400 was made for a 1999 Massey Ferguson 6265 with a Quicke loader and 9,600 hours on the clock. A 1990 Massey Ferguson 3645 topped at £10,000.

A groundbreaking entry of 36 vehicles and 3 lorries entered this month. Top call in this section was £18,900 for a 2017 Volvo FM450 8x4 tipper lorry with MOT until February 2025 and 519,842km's on the clock. A 2022 John Deere 865 UTV to £9,000 followed by £8,000 for a Polaris Ranger.

Onto an impressive lineup of 25 trailers which topped at £6,200 for a West 14T grain trailer, followed by £4,200 for a Marshall 12T dump trailer alongside a 33ft Bailey bale trailer which also topped at £4,200.

A good selection of implements topped at £12,500 for a McHale Fusion 2. A Shelbourne Reynolds 2800 power spread with hydraulic brakes went under the hammer for £6,400. Matching this was a 2017 Hi-Spec 2600 gal vacuum tanker also selling for £6,400. A John Deere 1365 mower in full working order sold for £4,200.

581 Smaller Machinery & Goods – Auctioneers: David Kivell, Tim Kivell, Charlie Kivell & Jack Bodily

On Saturday we saw a super entry of lots sold within our non-online section of tools and smaller items etc. A record of 95% clearance was had which produced an impressive total. One of the biggest crowds of buyers and onlookers we have sold in front of for quite some time which created a fantastic trade from start to finish despite the catchy weather.

Top of this section was £270 given for a stylish Harbour garden furniture suite which saw plenty of interest. Next was £220 for a small wooden car trailer, £170 reached for a decent 4 stroke Honda strimmer and a seat swing to £150. Sheets of galvanized sold at £130 and some threaded bar achieving £110.

Kivells Machinery & Equipment Sales Online | On Site | On Market Premises

- 'Our expertise centres around the agricultural sector and as our clients have diversified so have we.'
- We sell a huge range of machinery and equipment both into and out of the sector.
- Our online service offering is market leading and the feedback we have received both from our vendors and buyers bears that out. We are proud of our reputation and we are confident the choice of MartEye as Kivells online service partner will add to that.
- Our policy is to offer the best online capability combined with tried and tested traditional methods. We recognise the role auctions play in the agricultural community enabling people to gather and meet and the wellbeing benefits that brings. It is all about achieving the right balance in a safe environment and at the same time maximise the realisation for our vendors and ease of use for our buyers. We believe Kivells combination of market leading sales technology and respect for tradition does just that.'
