Annual Review

The 2022 Annual Review of Machinery Sales by Kivells LTD

www.kivells.com | 01409 253253 | machinery@kivells.com

A note from David Kivell

Another record breaking year for all the Kivells Machinery Team with over £5.2 million worth of machinery changing hands both at live auction and online, all to buyers from both ends of this country and across Europe.

A grand total of 25 auctions of machinery were carried out by the team, and more than 14,000 lots have been sold for all types of sellers from across the South West.

As 2022 progressed and with a change in management personnel the live sale and our timed online sale became ever more popular and large expectant crowds again became the norm. As increasing numbers of farmers looked to dispose of surplus kit as part of their forward planning, our onsite team has crossed the length and breadth of the South West in the last 12 months conducting sales of both modern and vintage machinery. With over £1 million worth of machinery sold via the onsite method it is clear that for many farmers this is increasingly becoming the auction style of choice.

The pandemic certainly accelerated change within many industries and as the conventional auction method was not possible throughout the multiple lockdown periods the timed online method has also proven to be a very efficient way to maximise the residual value of the machinery on offer. Purchasers have embraced this method and this coupled with Kivells own robust operating online platform via MartEye has resulted in some spectacular results.

Whilst on site sales by their nature have always been popular, allowing the farmer to keep all their own kit on farm until it is sold and avoiding having to transport it to our sales venues, we have certainly seen an increase and uptake in recent months. Our reach to social media via facebook has now extended to some 18,000 followers and continual updates and upgrades to our website particularly recently have ensured that our purchaser list continues to grow and our forthcoming sales fixtures also continue to expand.

What We Offer

Onsite Auctions

The onsite auctions remain a popular way of disposing farm plant and machinery quickly, efficiently and with complete transparency.

From the commencement of the sale catalogue to the clearance of the site following the sale the whole process can be undertaken in 4-6 weeks. It also retains the sense of occasion for those who are retiring from the industry.

With regular auctions across the South West, our dedicated team of auctioneers and administrators work closely with sellers and buyers to ensure a successful outcome. We promote auctions to our regular buyers database using this and our extensive auctioneering knowledge we are able to provide an efficient and effective service to both buyers and sellers.

Our experience and knowledge ensures sale proceeds are maximised and the whole auction is conducted in an efficient way. Our commission charges are flexible and competitive and we account promptly with the auction proceeds.

Timed Online Auctions

Our online timed auction service for agricultural machinery gives our clients the opportunity to sell surplus farm machinery and equipment via our online auction service run by MartEye. The service operates a no sale no fee basis and allows sellers to avoid the cost of expensive haulage to and from a collective auction.

Since the inception of our online auctions they have proven to be an extremely popular method of disposal of surplus equipment with minimum disruption to our client.

We host bi-monthly collective online auctions throughout the year but can also tailor individual auctions to specific needs and requirements of our particular clients. Each item will have its own detailed listing alongside a series of photographs and an optional video.

The auction runs over 5 days to a timed deadline, during which time buyers can access lots via our website or the MartEye website, arrange to view items and place their bid. At the end of the bidding period the item is sold, payment is made and the buyer collects the item directly from the seller.
